COMPLAINT:

COMPLAINANT: PLANTING
MR. HAYWOOD MACK ROSS
517 BLACK STREET
WHARTON, TEXAS 77488

COMPLAINANT IS AGAINST: DEFENDENT
CITY OF WHARTON, TEXAS
120 E. CANEY STREET
WHARTON, TEXAS 77488
CITY COUNCILMAN CLIFFORD JACKSON
AND
COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR MS. GWYNETH
TEVES

Event(s) that cause me to believe my rights are violated on a persistent basis:

I live in a trailer/mobile home on Black Street in Wharton. I have been informed that I have a (3) months under a City Variance and then I must move my trailer off of my land, trailer title, and land property tax exemption disabled military Veteran without any kind of documentation whatsoever from the City of Wharton.

The date(s) of this alleged PROPERTY RIGHTS violation is on going with winter at hand and I have to bathe and clean myself at a motel because it appears the whole town know about this so-called unwritten variance against my mobile home.

I would like to exercise my United States Constitutional Right to free speech toward public figures here in Wharton, Texas. Teves and particularly Councilman Cliff Jackson demonstrate that they are thoroughly unconscionable about any notion of HUMAN DIGNITY.

Therefore, I shall submit this complaint to the Federal Court in Houston as a violation of my civil rights and seek appointment of Attorney and damages due to the fact that I am a compensated disabled Veteran United States Armed Forces and suffer depression as a Social Security disability.

Thank you very much!

Mr. Haywood Mack Ross 517 Black Street Wharton, Texas 77488 [979]253-4893

Information About Filing a Complaint

If you believe your rights may have been violated, we encourage you to submit a complaint.

Because there are time limits on when a complaint can be filed with HUD after an alleged violation, you should submit a complaint as soon as possible.

When submitting a complaint, please provide as much information as possible, including:

- Your name and address;
- The name and address of the person(s) or organization your complaint is against;
- The address or other identification of the housing or program involved;
- A short description of the event(s) that cause you to believe your rights were violated; and
- The date(s) of the alleged violation.

Privacy Statement: The information submitted to HUD may be used to investigate and process claims of housing and other types of discrimination. It may be disclosed for lawful investigatory purposes, including to the U.S. Department of Justice for its use in the filing of pattern and practice suits of housing discrimination or the prosecution of the person(s) who committed the discrimination where violence is involved; the public, where appropriate; and to State or local fair housing agencies that administer substantially equivalent fair housing laws for complaint processing. Though disclosure of the information is voluntary, failure to provide some or all of the requested information may result in the delay or denial of help with your housing discrimination complaint.

Retaliation Is Illegal

It is illegal to retaliate against any person for making a complaint, testifying, assisting, or participating in any manner in a proceeding under HUD's complaint process at any time, even after the investigation has been completed. The Fair Housing Act also makes it illegal to retaliate against any person because that person reported a discriminatory practice to a housing provider or other authority. If you believe you have experienced retaliation, you can file a complaint.
